GRAND KNIGHT'S MESSAGE

I hope you all enjoyed Christmas with your family and friends. To begin the new year, I want to especially thank our C&B Chairman, Chancellor Neil Franzese, and all those who helped our successful C&B Drive. A total of 404 books were sold. Not any kind of record, but through your efforts we will be able to contribute to many worthy charities during the year.

Thanks also to Jim and Meg Nethaway and Don and Mary Longo for a fantastic job chairing and running the Children's Christmas Party. We had lots of children, good food and fun games. Santa Claus came down from the North Pole with lots of good cheer and toys for the kids. Thanks go to Richard Brazenor. The children donated two full cartons of toys for our needy neighbors via the Cure of Ars and Sacred Outreach Programs.

The next District Deputy Meeting will be held at Father Reilly

Council on January 11th at 7:30pm in the Council Chambers. Set up will be at 7pm.

CHAPLAIN'S MESSAGE

My dear brother Knights,

The New Year is OURS! Charles Dickens began his "Tale of Two Cities" by saying it was the best of time, and the worst of times. He went on and on like that for about a paragraph. And while we certainly understand what he meant, we also have to understand and be convinced that these are OUR times.

It is up to us to make our times come alive not with the sound of music but with the Good News of Jesus Christ. January affords us a unique time to do that. We celebrate National Migration Week, Martin Luther King's Birthday and the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity. These observances remind us that we are all different.

January provides us with the opportunity not to learn tolerance for these differences, but rather to celebrate them. Think of how the Dutch built a wall at the present site of Wall Street to keep the English out.....how Italians were persecuted.....how Catholics were shunned early on. The list goes on and on, but we have grown to celebrate those differences and that celebration has made this country and our Church the great institutions they are. Let's continue the celebration this month in our attitude of mind and heart, in words and actions. Fr. G

LADIES AUXILIARY NOTES

Fourteen of us attended our December meeting. We had a great time including a lively and spirited discussion about Christmas. We had a great time consuming all the special treats the ladies brought to the party. Thanks to one and all.

We had a moment of sad silence to honor and remember our sister Dolores. We all knew and loved her for the quiet, gentle, selfless, wonderful women that she was. Long suffering physically but still accepting and positive thinking. A dear lady who we honored in that moment of silence and in our hearts. We pray too for Artie. In addition, we prayed for a number of other people mentioned who are in need of prayers.

Our dinner together on January 11th will be locally at Rana's on Merrick Avenue. Please arrive between 5:30 & 5:45 PM to get the benefit of their great early bird special. I'll be in touch, or please call me to say you'll come join our fun evening together.

At our February 8th meeting, we will collect any and all special items on the Christa House wish list. If you can't find your list please let me know and I will try to bring a few copies on January 11th.

We ended our January meeting with prayers for Peace and for the safe and speeding return of all our servicemen and women serving throughout the world, especially in wars.

God Bless Us all in 2005.

Love, Mary

SUPPORT A FAMILY:

The prospective Father-In-Law asked, "Young man, can you support a family?" The surprised Groom-To-Be replied: "Well, no, I was planning to support your daughter. The rest of you will have to fend for yourselves."

GRANDMA'S AGE:

Little Johnny asked his Grandma how old she was. Grandma answered: "39 and holding." Johnny thought for a moment, and then said, "And how old would you be if you let go?"

LIFE AND DEATH:

"Do you believe in life after death?" the boss asked one of his employees. "Yes Sir," the new employee replied. "Well, then, that makes everything just fine." The boss went on, "After you left early yesterday to go to your Grandmother's funeral, she stopped in to see you."

CLIMB THE WALLS:

"Oh, I sure am happy to see you," the little boy said to his Grandmother on his Mother's side. "Now Daddy will do the trick he has been promising us." The Grandmother was curious. "What trick is that?" She asked. "I heard him tell Mommy that he would climb the walls if you came to visit." the little boy answered.
